- Varieties: Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon
- Type: Red
- Region: Medoc, Bordeaux, France
- Alcohol Level: 14.0%

Wine Description:

In 1821, Nicolas Bouey bought the family's first vines in the heart of the Médoc. His descendants, running down through the Bouey and Delhomme lines, would branch out into every part of the vine-growing business and take positions in some of the most prestigious estates in the Médoc. Maison Bouey is now one of the last independent, family-owned wine trading companies left in Bordeaux. The sole shareholders are Patrick and Jacques Bouey, ensuring the family retains total control.

Tasting Note:

The wine exhibits a deep ruby color. The nose is complex and offers a delightful combination of red and black fruits, with that intriguing graphite note and slight spicy hints. Its delicate yet focused on the palate, with silky with fine tannins.
